

Carl Roger Dingman

December 18, 1939 - August 24, 2019

Carl R. Dingman

Queensbury – Carl R. Dingman, 79, of Queensbury, passed away on Saturday, August 24, 2019.

Born in Glens Falls on December 18, 1939, he was the son of the late Orlie and Iva (Allen) Dingman.

He was raised and educated in Town of Day and attended local schools.

Carl was a driver for Joe White Logging for several years and a caretaker for Homestead Village. Later, Carl was the owner and operator of Reliable Sewer Service in Queensbury. He enjoyed gambling and traveling to casinos and camping.

In addition to his parents, Carl was predeceased by his longtime companion, Carolyn Simmons; and siblings, Audrey Rowland, Irma Meyers, Helen Dingman, Gloria Vanderwalker, Richard Dingman and David Dingman.

Survivors include his daughter, Wendy (Joe) Falasco of Glens Falls; his sister, Mary Lou Dreyman of Mayfield; his brother, Joseph (Jackie) Dingman of Hadley; his grandson, Blaike Condon of Hudson Falls; several nieces and nephews, including, Kimberly, Kari and Douglas.

Funeral services are private and will be held at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements are in the care of Regan Denny Stafford Funeral Home, Queensbury.

Comments

“ Hi Joe, I am so sorry to see that Carl has passed away and I am deeply sorry for your loss. I'm not sure if you remember me but I am a friend of Carl's from back in the mid 80's and early 90's. He was a very special person. He was a kind individual with a good heart. I think of him often and all the good times we had. I remember going to your parents' home with Carl and sitting at the kitchen table enjoying a cup of coffee with your family. I still have the quilt that your Mom gave me.

With Sympathy,
Louise Harris

Louise Harris - September 26, 2019 at 02:00 PM