“ I will always remember Aunt Sandy as a kind and caring presence. Someone who was supportive of people's dreams no matter what they might be. Aunt Sandy was someone who knew there was something deeper in all of us and chose to treat that inner being with kindness. May her memories and her spirit inspire others to see goodness and seek their inner calling.

With love,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I lived next door for many years and then worked at Labor near her. She was such an exceptional painter. I tried to buy one years ago but she wouldn't sell it.

“ Hello Diane - Thank you so much for remembering my Sister Sandy, as it has been so long since we have connected. She would of been so tickled pink to know that you remembered her.

Though she is resting in peace now and is not suffering, our hearts are extremely broken by the loss of her and she will be sorely missed.

Thank you again,

Pam

“ I love you Sandy like family because you always were from the beginning...the first friend I ever made was Lisa 1985 and to this day still my best friend through distance and time even though she is not my bloodline I considered the Trombley Family my own. I loved hugging and embracing your family. I was blessed to meet Grandpa and Scotty. To grow through years with such good ,wholesome, sincere people. In a time when people saw my skin they loved me like I was no different and let me into their home and hearts. Thank you...as an adult I carry all the sweet memories of yesteryears and now with tender tears I let you go. I know none of us are meant to stay but leaving is never a choice only a destination to greatness. But still our loss...However bittersweet this may be without you I feel a bit more empty yet I know you are ..whole again.I love you & hope you see Josie up there my mother loved you so. No one can every take those memories of our childhood with you and your family. You had no idea what you meant to us or to me beyond another blessing ...Family! God bless and keep you. I trust in my journey of life at the very end that we will meet again my friend, my love....Tamera Jackson-Alvaro Thank you for being you...Irreplaceable

“ We loved Sandy. She was a good soul. She loved my brother unconditionally and was the true love of his life. They gave all of us our beautiful Lisa, a fine young woman who has learned so much from her beloved mom. Sandy was the embodiment of goodness. A good soul. A good woman. A good person.

With our love and condolences,

Bernie and Martha Trombley

“ Hi Lisa, I'm so very sorry. Your mom was always so giving to me in so many ways. I remember years ago when I went through a bad breakup with a boyfriend, and she immediately invited me over for dinner so I wasn't alone. I can still remember that she made a quiche for me because she knew it was my favorite. Whenever she and your Dad went to a flea market or antiquing, they always bought me something. I have a beautiful purple Depression glass vase, handmade Christmas ornaments, and many utensils for the kitchen. There was never a time when I didn't feel like I could talk to her. Oh, I can't forget all the beautiful horse drawings she gave me. She was kind, gentle, and beautiful inside and out. I hope and pray these shared memories bring you some comfort. I'll be sending a donation to St. Jude's Children's Hospital in your Mom's memory. I love you. Aunt Chris and Uncle George

“ What I remember most about Aunt Sandy is her gentle and caring voice. She was always very kind to me as a little girl.

My deepest sympathies to my cousin, Lisa. I am so happy that you were given the grace to be at your Mom's side during this time of visitation restrictions. May God strengthen and comfort you as you go forward with the assurance that we will all be reunited in the presence of our Loving God and that this is only a temporary absence.

Your Cousin Alex (Alexita)

“ To my very special friend, we shared so many years of wonderful memories as we grew up together and you were always my protector. I am so heart broken once again and I so wish you were still here with us yet that would be selfish of me as you were suffering beyond belief. I will miss our phone calls and visits sorely. I know you are at Peace and with Mommy and Daddy now and with my other very special friend, my sweetheart Denny. Until we see each other again, you will always have a piece of my heart and my soul . As my heart is crying, you will be in my thoughts, always. I love you so much my dear Sister - Pammy (hhwf)

“ My special memory of Sandy was her smile and her laugh. She had a graciousness about her that put others at ease. Although life was difficult at times, I remember her personality as sunny and happy. It's a comfort to know she is reunited with my brother Joe who was her one true love.
