He was a skilled bowler, having two 300 games. He was an outdoorsman, enjoying hunting and fishing. He was the number one fan of his daughter, who played for the Glens Falls Titans softball league and worked hard at fundraising for the team.

“ "May the candle that I just lit for Scott always remains burns for the path of Scott's family and especially his daughter; Kaitlyn whom he just adored and spoke of all the time.

Kaitlyn, may you take comfort in knowing that you now have a "VERY SPECIAL ANGEL" always watching over you."

“ George family, Scotty was the neighbor boy across the street on Gates Hollow when he was little. All the kids remember him and his kind personality. Thanks so much for stopping up here last summer when you were in Bradford. Can't believe he's gone. Too soon in life. Love to all of you.

“ We met the George family as our daughters Alex and Kaitlyn were in the same Pre-K class. Alex grew pretty fond of Kaitlyn and it was easy to see why. She was smart, funny, silly and very caring. These traits came directly from her great parents, Jessie and Scott. When we moved into our house Scott volunteered to come help us open up our pool (until he realized the awful condition it was in lol so we left it to the professionals). Over the years the girls went in separate directions but would hang out from time to time and I could see the overwhelming love and pride that poured out of Scott for his daughter. I last saw Scott earlier this year, pre-covid, when we were picking up/dropping off the kids at SkyZone and he was right there with a joke, offering a ride for Alex and talking about his fancy new truck. This is a heartbreaking loss. The Davis family sends our love to Jessie, Kaitlyn and all of your family.

“ So very sorry for the loss of this man! I worked with him from his beginning with the Union and he was a solid, trustworthy, kind, gentle man. Highly respected and well loved by all that worked with him and for him, a better man does not exist! My heartfelt condolences go out to his wife, daughter, and family. He shall be sorely missed! As we say in the Navy, Fair Winds and Following Seas my friend, we have the watch! A true Brother, and honorary Shipmate, rest assured you will not be forgotten. Rest easy Brother.
