“ I had the honor of knowing Vito since Roslyn High School in the 60's. we dated and worked together at Long Island Doctors also in Roslyn. One of my memories there Was when we would go to the cafeteria together and tease the lady who was the staple of the kitchen until she would roll her rolling pin at us. We always laughed and blew her kiss's, (she really loved Vito because all he had to was smile at her and she would melt.) We lost touch for a while but met again when i started working at St Francis and I thank you for being my forever friend. <3
